

The time given at crosswalks are not adequate or long enough for their location around the city to allow for safe crossing throughout the day.